Reasonable Accommodation for People with Disabilities

If you or any member of your household have a disability and as a result need any of the following in order to have an equal opportunity to apply to or live in our development, or participate in services and programs we offer, please let us know:

These kinds of changes are called reasonable accommodations. We will provide a requested reasonable accommodation if:

- the nexus or connection between your disability and the need for the accommodation is obvious or you can document it; and
- your request does not pose an undue financial and administrative burden or fundamental change in the program, which means in simple language if it is not too expensive and too difficult to arrange or do, or does not require us to do something that the housing program is not designed to do or would prevent us from doing what we are required to do.

We will give you an answer as to whether we can provide the accommodation within ten (10) business days unless there is a problem getting the information we need, or unless you agree to a longer time. We will let you know if we need more information or documentation from you or if we would like to talk to you about other ways to meet your needs.

If we turn down your request, we will explain the reasons. If you want, you may then give us information that addresses the reason why we turned down your request.

Massachusetts Department of Housing and Community
 Development Resident Notice and Consent Form

Pursuant to state law, Chapter 334 of the Acts of 2006, the Department of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) must gather, compile, and report data in order to provide current, accurate, and detailed information on the number, location, and residents of assisted housing units (including privately owned housing with state subsidy or federal subsidy administered by the state). DHCD will also evaluate the data to ensure that housing choice and inclusive patterns of housing are available across the Commonwealth.

DHCD will annually report to the state legislature on its data collection efforts. DHCD may also share information with the quasi-public agencies and provide reports to other interested parties in a manner consistent with privacy laws, including Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 66A.
